John Leonard Press is a leading publisher of new Australian poetry, well-edited and attractively produced to sell. The publisher is LK Holt. The commissioning editor, John Leonard, is Australia's foremost anthologist: Seven Centuries of Poetry in English (5th ed. OUP), Australian Verse (OUP), Contemporary Australian Poetry (Houghton Mifflin); and New Music (FIP).

The Press began with the desire to publish the first books of five younger poets. Diverse in their styles, these are poets who share a remarkable technical maturity. All five books were shortlisted for national prizes:

Elizabeth Campbell: Letters to the Tremulous Hand 978-0-9775787-6-4, 76 pp. RRP 23.95

Claire Gaskin: A Bud 0 9775787 0 4, 78 pp. RRP 21.95

LK Holt: Man Wolf Man 978-0-9775787-7-1, 78 pp. RRP 23.95

Paul Magee: Cube Root of Book 0 9775787 1 2, 78 pp. RRP 21.95

Petra White: The Incoming Tide 978 0 9775787 4 0, 60 pp. RRP 23.95

Our list now also includes eight well-established poets who are highly regarded for earlier collections. Six have won national prizes for a previous book:

Jordie Albiston: Vertigo (a cantata) 978 0 9775787 5 7, 62 pp. RRP 23.95

Julian Croft: Ocean Island 0 9775787 3 9, 94 pp. RRP 21.95

Aileen Kelly: The Passion Paintings: Poems 1983-2006 0 9775787 2 0, 222 pp. RRP 24.95
